BALLET CLASS CD - Maestro Gary

Music for Ballet Class by Maestro Gary

"It is an honor to have worked with Gary. It is rare to find a great ballet accompanist and I whole-heartedly endorse his music. One of the elements that are essential to instilling the love of classical ballet is a great accompanist. Gary's vibrant and sensitive music enlivens and gives breathe to every class he plays." ... Music for Ballet Class - Intermediate Vol 1 - Traditional Compositions for Ballet Class Intermediate Level by Maestro Gary

27 Tracks for Ballet Class by Gregor Khachikyan. 74:35 Minutes long.

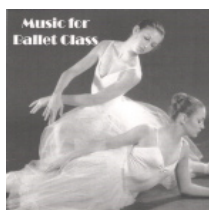

From the back cover... "The clear preparations, strong rhythms, simple melodies and slower tempos make this a perfect CD for beginning and intermediate level ballet classes. With this thoughtful approach, young dance students can truly learn to understand what it means to dance with the music. I found that when I the CD in my Ballet II class, the music actually helped them not only to perform the movements musically, but with the right quality." Gillian Finley Director of West Coast Dance Academy Mission Viejo, CA

About Lynette: Besides playing for Huntingdon College as a Dance Accompanist, teaching piano at the Heritage Academy of the Performing Arts, and playing viola in both the Symphony Orchestra and a String Quartet, Lynette is active as a composer. She has composed a Divertimento for Mandolin Orchestra which has been recorded by Douglas Back's "Fretworks". Several of her works for strings - a Serenade for solo viola and strings, "Hard Drive" for strings, a string quartet, and other works, have been well received. Her CDs, which she records herself, include "A Long Stretch of the Imagination", which is meditative music for stretching. Lynette studied at the Royal College of Music in London with Sir Herbert Howells, and in her native South Africa with Ronald Stevenson. She has one college-age daughter.

DANCE PHRASES BALLET SERIES - Ballet Barre & Centre CDs

These tuneful, original compositions are composed in repeating but varied rhythmic phrases so the music can be used to reinforce the accent patterns and rhythms of the steps in a ballet combination. The music can be easily used to reinforce the dance technique. Combinations can also be created to go against the music phrase and help teach rhythmic independence.

Each Syllabus is $79.00 CDs are sold separately for $19.95 each or all 5 CDs for $89.00

Each syllabus comes in a looseleaf binder and gives instructions for a one hour class, once a week for a complete nine month ballet class.

These syllabuses are geared toward the new teacher who is starting their own classes, developing their own teaching style and want to know which exercises to teach, in what order and how fast to pace a class over the course of a year. Time is allowed in lessons for developing an end of the year recital piece. These lessons can be easily adapted to any ballet style or technique and are based on the successful teaching style and studios of Deanna L. Low who has over 20 years experience teaching ballet classes in her own studios.

“The right combination of dynamic accompaniment for teaching modern dance class is found in Michael’s CD. I appreciate that the tracks are long enough to allow the necessary warm-up and repetition of exercises at the beginning of class, and inspirational for substantive combinations across the floor. Training dancers in musicality is one of my teaching objectives, and much easier when the music is fun and makes them listen!” Bonnie Oda Homsey (Former principal dancer Martha Graham Dance Company/Master teacher/Choreographer)

Percussion Works – by William Catanzaro

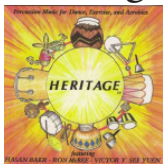

4 compositions for the choreography of Milton Myers

Contents: Variations #1 (9:47), Variations #2 (15:58), Seasonal Fire (18:09), The Garden (9:57)

CD M20 is $22.50 - Demos online

“These compositions are the result of several years of close collaboration between composer/multi-instrumentalist William Catanzaro and choreographer Milton Myers. Mr. Catanzaro’s characteristic style mixes instruments and musical forms from many different cultures: Brazilian samba, balao, chorinho, Argentinean zamba, Uruguayan candombe, Cuban son and guajira, West African and Middle Eastern rhythms create a unique tapestry of percussion. The approach is orchestral with set patterns, ostinatos and improvised sections. The powerful rhythmic textures generate an energy that charges the dancers with vitality and force.” ...From the CD insert.

The DANCE PHRASES Series by June Olsson for both Modern Dance & Ballet class accompaniment has been created using musical phrases that rhythmically repeat. Based on the concept that rhythmic ideas in dance, when reinforced musically, help the developing dancer learn combinations and rhythmic articulation more quickly, these CDs can be used by the instructor to teach dance rhythms by creating combinations which either go with the musical rhythms (to reinforce the dance step) or against the rhythms (to teach rhythmic independence) in the music and can be used to help teach students how to use their music. Composer June Olsson has 10+ years experience as a dance accompanist with Governor's School for the Arts and Old Dominion University in Virginia playing Hawkins, Limon, Graham & other technique classes as well as Master Classes

MODERN DANCE CDS - Jon Scoville

Pirouette Park by Jon Scoville For Modern Class

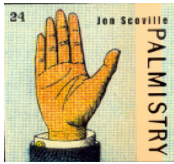

Pirouette Park is an album of magical polyrhythms for use in dance classes: modern, contemporary, jazz, and world. It blends together Brazilian and African influences with digital technology and is varied in mood, meter, tempo, and style. The music comes out of more than 35 years of working with dance teachers and choreographers around the globe, and is a response to requests for a recording which could be used in classes when no accompanist is present. With that in mind the music was composed with an emphasis on rhythmic drive. Each track lists the tempo and meter, and usually includes a four beat count-off.

Contents: 1. Ozbela (Fred Simpson, Congolese percussion loop - 12/8 - 116bpm - 5:35), 2. Modulo (Scott Laury, timbao - 4/4 - 109bpm - 4:30), 3. A Delerium of Swallows (4/4 - 120bpm - 4:00), 4. Cooler Heads Prevailed (4/4 - 86bpm - 4:20), 5. Indigo Maria (Jeffery Gaeto, keyboard flute - 12/8 - 120bpm - 4:10), 6. Olocatu (Wayne Coons, Drumkat percussion - 4/4 - 100bpm - 3:50), 7. Flop Flip (4/4 - 90bpm - 3:10), 8. Three Rivers (Jeffery Gaeto, keyboard sax - 3/4 - 101bpm - 4:45), 9. Ritornello (4/4 - 120bpm - 4:35), 10. Re:Heat (4/4 - 111bpm - 4:25), 11. Tindo (Mandjou Kone, voice / Fred Simpson, djembe - 6/4 - 127bpm - 5:50), 12. Jitter (4/4 - 133bpm - 3:45), 13. Details to Follow (Fred Simpson, djembe & ngoma - 4/4 - 103bpm - 4:25), 14. Amphimix (Wayne Coons, Drumkat percussion - 12/8 - 120bpm - 5:20), 15. Sub Marine Dream (Art Lande, keyboard guitars - 9/8 - 135bpm - 5:45), 16. Legerdemain - by Jon Scoville More Music for an Imaginary Keyboard

53:29 Min. - Contents: 1. Prologue, 2. Boogie Woogie, 3. Azan, 4. Angle of Repose (On a Theme by Federico Mompou), 5. Pinacatto, 6. Xote Do Souto, 7. Volant, 8. Neither Horses Nor Heaven, 9. Truth Told Slant, 10. Waltz of Circumspect Corporals, 11. Prelude Garden, 12. Smith Grade Tang, 13. The Lake, 14. Certain Twilights, 15. Hands Down, 16. Caesura, 17. Approach, 18. Cirkus Quirkus, 19. Gallimaufry, 20. Klezbyterian, 21. Miro Asleep (Epilogue)

From the inside jacket: "Legerdemain (Old French: light of hand) is the second in a series of preludes for an imaginary keyboard. Like Palmistry, it uses a digital idiom to forage the borderlines between the computer (hardware) and the imagination (heartware). This album explores some of the many musical territories which I have been traversing for the past 30 years, from the traditional to the experimental: from blues, boogie-woogie, and jazz to Brazilian, tangos, waltzes, aleatoric, and beyond.

... Yet, ultimately, music isn't about compositional methods or choice of instruments. It's about intuitively organing on sound after another. There are worlds of music in this disc. Have a listen."
